

Subscribe

Past Issues

Translate ▼

Arts on the Move Programs Wrap Up at Local Schools

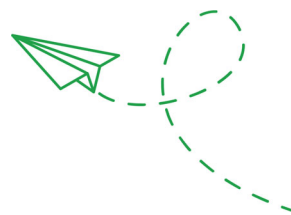

Arts on the Move has been an unqualified success. This innovative program has served over 1,800 students at 5 schools, and teachers, parents, and students have been excited to participate. We are beginning to collect data

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

- 80% of the respondents reported that at least 70% of students mastered the standards that were taught.
- Students learned a variety of vocabulary words, movement patterns and concepts, and personal responsibility during this unit.
- Students were excited to attend, and they loved the class and the instructor.

100% of respondents said that they would recommend this program to other schools.

For more information on Arts on the Move and other Launchpad programs, contact Launchpad director, Karen Anderson: karen@artshuntsville.org.

Creative Launchpad plans Arts Integration Residencies with schools in Athens, Huntsville, and Madison County